

HOW TO find US

The Firedog creative and design studio is situated in the district of Shoreditch - Just above the square mile of the City of London. We are based on the south side of Hoxton Square, N1. 7 or 8 minutes walk from Old Street tube.

FROM OLD STREET UNDERGROUND STATION:

Take the number two exit, labeled as 'Old Street East (North Side)' and follow the ramp to street level. Continue along Old Street, carefully avoiding the kebab shops on your left.

After approximately four minutes stroll, the road will divide into two. Continue left along Old Street passing the Holiday Inn Express on your left.

At the next four way set of traffic lights, turn left onto Rufus Street.

As you enter Hoxton Square, turn right and look for the white building with the blue double doors on the south side of the square. Buzz the top right button for Firedog.

Approximate walking time is eight minutes.
